Daniel 2:24-49

- 1. Why don't we expect God to speak to us in dreams as He did in Daniel's day. What do you think would happen if you ask God to speak to you in dreams? Do you think such a request would be pleasing to God?
- 2. Compare the story of Daniel to the story of Joseph in Genesis 41 and 42. What are the similarities in their stories? How did they respond to the accolades of the Pharaoh and King Nebuchadnezzar? There's a slogan used in training young pastors, "Don't touch the gold, glory or girls." How does this apply?
- 3. Most of the interpretation of Nebuchadnezzar's dream has already taken place. How does that give you hope for the future? Discuss the Stone in Nebu's dream... who, what, where, when, how?
- 4. Who are the people today who can influence our world's leadership the way Daniel influenced the king?
- 5. How do we become a part of God's efforts in the world so that we are doing His bidding wherever we are?
